Old Business

No old business was presented.

New Business

In response to the townships concerns about increased activity in Mayfield Township by oil and gas companies soliciting leases from township land owners, the commission is holding a public forum to address the township and the public concerns pertaining to fracking.

Township residents Carol Pariseau and Doris Rolland inquired about potential problems resulting from fracking, the disposal of the waste material and any other issues.

Attorney Gary Howell gave an overview about regulating fracking, the importance of land owners controlling terms in proposed leases and what townships can actually control about fracking activities in their townships.

Discussion was held.

Other Business

No business was presented.
